Solihull Healthcare Partnership – Carers Event: For carers who help and support someone who can’t manage on their own. The event will be at Solihull Retirement Village, Shirley, Solihull, B90 3LP, on 9 November 10am-1pm. There will be information stands, health checks for carers and refreshments. For more information visit www.solihullhealthcarepartnership.nhs.uk.

Older Adult Information: The Solihull Community Development Team - Citizens Advice Solihull Borough CAB and Solihull Rural PCN - are working together to host an event for the community to meet and chat to various organisations and services that provide a range of information, support and advice. Location: Balsall Common Library, 283 Kenilworth Road, Balsall Common, CV7 7EL, Wednesday 13 November, 10.30am - 12.30pm. All are welcome to turn up on the day (there is no need to book). Free parking.

Men Walking and Talking in Solihull is a group designed to help break down the stigma of mental health in men, and uses the weekly walks to form a group of like-minded gents who talk and gain support from others who equally struggle with life's curved balls. They meet outside the main gates of Malvern & Brueton Park (New Road, off Warwick Road) weekly on Tuesday evenings at 7pm.
